SAINT JOHN XXIII
(1881 - 1963)
Patron Saint of Papal Delegates
Feast Day - 11 October

Named a cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953, he was finally a residential bishop. A month short of entering his 78th year, he was elected pope, taking the name John after his father and the two patrons of Rome's cathedral, St. John Lateran. He took his work very seriously but not himself.

His most famous encyclicals were Mother and Teacher (1961) and Peace on Earth (1963). Pope John XXIII enlarged the membership in the College of Cardinals and made it more international. At his address at the opening of the Second Vatican Council, he criticized the "prophets of doom" who "in these modern times see nothing but prevarication and ruin." Pope John XXIII set a tone for the Council when he said, "The Church has always opposed... errors. Nowadays, however, the Spouse of Christ prefers to make use of the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity."

On his deathbed he said: "It is not that the gospel has changed; it is that we have begun to understand it better. Those who have lived as long as I have... were enabled to compare different cultures and traditions, and know that the moment has come to discern the signs of the times, to seize the opportunity and to look far ahead."

"Good Pope John" died on June 3, 1963. St. John Paul II beatified him in 2000, and Pope Francis canonized him in 2014.

There is no shortage of controversy related to the topic of life. Reproductive rights, abortion, euthanasia, the death penalty, embryonic stem cell research, defense against terrorism, justifiable war ... the list goes on and on. What are followers of Jesus supposed to make of it all? The situations seem complicated, but answers do exist. This YDISCIPLE course untangles the issues in the light of Catholic teaching, which proves to be practical, relevant, and infused with the love and mercy of God.
