SAINT ROSE OF LIMA
 (1586-1617)
 Patron Saint of Embroiderers
 Feast day is 23 August

Rose, even as a child, had great reverence and love for all things related to God. She lived a life of prayer and mortification. She was very beautiful but she realized that appearance had nothing to do with what a person was on the inside, so she focused on the beauty of her soul. She knew that she would be spiritually beautiful with prayer, penance, and the practice of virtue.

St. Rose worked hard gardening and sewing to support her parents who were very poor. She humbly obeyed them, except when they tried to persuade her to marry. That she would not do. Rose wanted to live for Jesus alone. She joined the Dominican Third Order and lived in a little hut on her parent's property. She frequently visited the Blessed Sacrament and embroidered lace to help support her family.

She had many temptations from the devil. There were times she suffered terrible loneliness and sadness. She cheerfully offered all these troubles to God. She kept praying for her trust to grow stronger. In her last long illness she would pray: "Lord, increase my sufferings, and with them increase your love in my heart."

She was thirty-one when she died on August 24, 1617 in Lima, and her funeral was held in the cathedral. She was the first native born saint of the Americas. She was canonized in 1671 by Pope Clement X.

Prayer to Immaculate Heart of Mary

O Most Blessed Mother, heart of love, heart of mercy, ever listening, caring, consoling, hear our prayer. As your children, we implore your intercession with Jesus your Son. Receive with understanding and compassion the petitions we place before you today, especially those so deep in our heart.

We are comforted in knowing your heart is ever open to those who ask for your prayer. We trust to your gentle care and intercession, those whom we love and who are sick or lonely or hurting. Help all of us, Holy Mother, to bear our burdens in this life until we may share eternal life and peace with God forever.
Amen.
